Sami Amin introduces his latest collection for 2018, titled the Toys collection. The collection is inspired by all the important toys throughout the Egyptian history. After a journey of 25 years in Egypt, Sami Amin offers more variety to his designs, adopting new handbags' designs and distinctive brass elements to complement the look. The collection is inspired by the child inside each one of us, our inner younger self that makes us enjoy everything around. That part that makes us have fun, love and get closer to one another. The new collection is a call for you to unleash your inner child and revive all your childhood memories looking at our enjoyable art pieces.

The new pieces are all inspired by toys including things like the swings, the clown, the rattle toys, the trains, the dice, and the Festive Mouled doll. All the pieces are a great manifestation to the major toys that have been significant in the Egyptian history.

Highlighting important cultural icons through his designs has always mesmerized Sami and that is why the Toys collection marks a significant milestone in his career. As usual the handbags and accessories comes in the six distinctive real leather shades of Sami Amin brand; Black, brown, Blue, Red, Beige and Havan presenting a very practical design range that can flatter any outfit style.
